The evening of celebration and dance also honored individuals making a difference and inspiring others. The 2024 honorees included:

- The Hyacinth Award: Presented to dancer, actor and activist Jason A. Rodriguez, known for his work in the television series Pose
- The Deloris Dockrey Community Award: Dual awards were given to HIV advocates and leaders Sal Susino, manager of special initiatives for the Prevention Resource Network at the Visiting Nurse Association (VNA) Health Group, and Shannon Preston, executive director of HIV Services at the VNA.
- The Riki Jacobs Social Justice Award: Presented to New Jersey Senate Majority Leader M. Teresa Ruiz, whom Hyacinth describes as “a prominent political figure known for her work in the New Jersey Senate. She has a notable reputation for advocating for education reform, social justice and community development.”
