NMAC Launches PrEP Resource for Young Gay Men of Color

August 5, 2014

The National Minority AIDS Council (NMAC) has launched PrEPare for Life, an online resource page for young gay men of color about pre-exposure prophylaxis (PrEP). The page includes peer-based educational videos, infographics to be shared on social media and links to other PrEP resources.

Here is an example of their infographics:

Also on the page are training materials for use by community-based organizations to enhance their capacity to educate their constituents about PrEP. The materials include a training manual, which is available in both English and Spanish, as well as a customizable PowerPoint presentation.
